

Become an inspirational Information Technology Business Leader

Master of Information Technology (Management) The University of Queensland

The Master of Information Technology (Management) will broaden your career opportunities by developing your skills in I.T. application development combined with business management. This program has especially been designed for students who want to develop new or additional IT skills and become an inspirational I.T. business leader of the future.

- Program highlights - 2 year duration (full-time program)
- Starts in February 2009 (subsequent intakes each February & July)
- Study at the UQ St Lucia campus, located in Brisbane
- Study program highlights - Tailor your individual study program to become a professional in I.T. applications development combined with key business management.
- Information Technology -
- information systems development
 - database technology
 - software engineering
 - web design
- plus a selection of further electives from information technology
- Business Management -
- human resource management
 - accounting
 - information analysis & design
 - management information systems
- plus a selection of further electives from business management
- Indicative Fees - Domestic students $8275 AUD per semester (subject to change)
- More information - Web: <http://study.itee.uq.edu.au/mitm>
- Email: pgcw@itee.uq.edu.au
- Phone: +617 3365 3840

CRICOS PROVIDER NUMBER 00025B

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA