

ASCED CODES AND FIELD OF STUDY UTILISED BY THE SCHOOL OF ITEE

The University is required to allocate an ASCED (Australian Standard Classification of Education) code to all research higher degree candidates. This code represents the candidate's Field of Study, is reported to the Federal government in each DEST (Department of Education, Science and Training) Submission, and is used by the Federal government when allocating funding to the University under the Research Training Scheme (RTS).

The School of Information Technology and Electrical Engineering utilises the following 6 ASCED Codes and Fields of Study:

020199	COMPUTER SCIENCE
020119	ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE
020399	INFORMATION SYSTEMS
031301	ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
031305	COMPUTER ENGINEERING
039903	BIOMEDICAL ENGINEERING
